

A Special Exhibit by Ryerson University
Library and Archives

February, 2014

Located on the 4th floor of the Ryerson Library in the Special Collections archives, in preparation for World Pride, this exhibit commemorates the successes, achievements and overcome struggles that faced Ryerson's LGBTQ groups from 1963 until present, and showcases a timeline of Rye PRIDE's history, featuring original posters and ephemera from past events.

The exhibit would not be possible without the generous support of the Ryerson University Library, Special Collections, Archives, The Canadian Lesbian and Gay Archives and Rye PRIDE as well as the many present and past Ryerson students and alumni who have helped Rye PRIDE become what it is today. We ask that you also join us for the opening reception of the exhibit taking place on February 12, 2014, from 5-8PM at the Oakham Lounge, 55 Gould St. with cash bar, light refreshments and snacks to commemorate the newest era in Ryerson's LGBTQ community.

