

Data Liberation Initiative

Model Data Use Licence

The data contained in this dataset were provided under the Data Liberation Initiative “to be used only by educators, students and other staff members” of Ryerson University, “and only while they have such status within this educational institution, . . . for the exclusive purposes of teaching, academic research and publishing, and/or planning of educational services within this educational institution and may not be used for any other purposes without the explicit prior written approval of Statistics Canada.”

Authorized users are prohibited from using these data products in the pursuit of any contractual or income-generating venture either privately, or under the auspices of the educational institution.

“The publishing of analysis and results from research using any of these data products is permitted in research communications such as scholarly papers, journals and the like. The authors of these communications are required to cite Statistics Canada as the source of the data, and to indicate that the results or views expressed are those of the author. Permission to use extracts of these data in textbooks must be obtained from the Licensing Section of Statistics Canada’s Marketing Division.”
